

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Not allowed to answer question as to whether State found photographs important (649).

Neither Mason nor Schwartz testified before 1922 Grand Jury (650).

Went to scene with Schwartz to direct what he wanted done (650).

Had conversed with Mrs. Gibson at her home and went to scene to verify certain of her statements (650).

Heard Mrs. Gibson relate her story several times (651).

Mason not allowed to say what Mrs. Gibson told him she saw on September 14, 1922 (651-654).

Not allowed to say whether Mrs. Gibson did or did not identify Mr. Harry Carpender or Mr. William Stevens (654-56).

Located on Briscoe's Map offered in evidence saplings and stump though it was brought out that map was inaccurate in part (657-8).

Various measurements were taken at Phillips Farm under Mason's direction (659-660).

Could not say what the prints were he saw but admitted there had been a great crowd around the place (661).

Not allowed to say whether he attempted to re-enact the scene as told to him by Mrs. Gibson (661-3).

Was at scene with Schneider and made his observations prior